

DONNA GALANTI

AUTHOR VISITS

“Ms. Galanti came to visit our middle school’s creative writing group, and she was awesome! She shared her creative process from start to finish and is a talented writer and an inspiration. By the end of her engaging presentation, the students felt as though they, too, were capable of achieving their goals of writing a book and becoming published authors. We can’t wait to have her back!”—Erica Cranden, English Teacher, William Annin Middle School, NJ
